FINAL SESSION OF CONGRESS OPENS

Next President, Who Sits in His Place in Senate, is Magnet
Which Draws Crowds

HE MAKES A SHORT ADDRESS

Speech Sets New Precedent in American History—Both Branches
in Session Few Minutes

L. C. MARTIN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
Washington, Dec. 6.—The final session of the Sixty-sixth Congress began at noon today. When it ends on March 3 next, many of the members who today greeted each other will return to private life along with Woodrow Wilson.

The next president of the United States, Senator Harding, who sat in his place, was the magnet that made the senate wing of the capitol
the goal of the crowds. His entrance into the senate caused a demonstration by senators and spectators lasting several minutes.

Harding was called to the rostrum for a speech soon after the senate convened and the body adjourned at 12:20, immediately after Harding finished his speech. Harding's speaking to the senate set a new precedent in American history.
Before he spoke Senator Heflin of Oklahoma and Senator Glass of Virginia were sworn in and resolutions adopted to notify President Wilson and the house that the senate was ready for business.

The house meanwhile entered into its session without any unusual events. The call of the roll consumed a long time and the senate resolutions were agreed to and the house adjourned until tomorrow.

This short session has been looked on in prospect as a rather routine session, devoted largely to passage of the fourteen appropriation bills. But indications are that it will be crowded with other important business. Not only will the mass of routine be tremendous, but there is to be considerable foundation-laying for the Sixty-Seventh Congress, when the Republicans, in complete control of both legislative and executive branches of the government, purpose an ambitious program.

When Congress assembled, interest centered in President Wilson's final message, which probably will be read tomorrow. Both houses, but particularly the senate, wanted to hear whether Wilson, defeated at

BUNDRANT AMONG 49 SEEKING CLEMENCY

Former Rushville Colored Man, Serving Life Sentence For Murder, Wants Term Shortened

PARDON BOARD MEETS TODAY

Leslie Bundrant, Rushville colored man who was sentenced to life imprisonment June 1, 1908, in the Shelby circuit court at Shelbyville for the murder of a colored man named Coleman a short distance east of Rushville, was one of forty-nine "lifers" going before the state board of pardons with pleas of clemency, at the opening of the December session of the board in Indianapolis today. The board will be in session five days.

Bundrant never stood trial although a jury was impaneled in the Rush circuit court to hear the case.
Bundrant agreed to plead guilty to a charge of first degree murder providing he was sentenced for life.
The judge instructed the local jury to find him guilty and fix the penalty at life imprisonment, but the jury disregarded the instructions and sentenced him to death.

The court set aside the verdict and the case was sent to the Shelby county court, which was then in the same circuit with Rush county, and the agreement between the prosecutor and the defendant, which had been entered into with the consent of the judge, was carried out.

TRYING TO GET A SPECIAL

Local Fans Likely to go to Columbus For Game Friday Night

An effort was being made today to get a special train over the Pennsylvania railroad to take local fans to Columbus next Friday night when Rushville high school's basketball team journeys there for a game.

Sixty-seven in high school this morning signified their readiness to go and it is believed equally that many out of school would attend. J.
M. Higgins, the local agent, wired Louisville for terms on a special and it is probable that something definite about the number required and the fare will be known by Tuesday.

GLENWOOD BARBER DIED THIS MORNING

John H. Link Expires Suddenly of Bursted Artery—Widow, One Son and 2 Daughters Survive

FUNERAL WEDNESDAY, 1 P. M.

John Harvey Link, a barber of Glenwood, died this morning about three o'clock at his home in that town, death being caused from a ruptured pulmonary artery. The deceased was 57 years old and was well known in the Glenwood vicinity where he had lived for a great many years.

Mr. Link had been in poor health for some time, but was not considered critically ill, and his death came as a shock to his family and friends. He is survived by a widow, one son and two daughters, who are Leslie, Mrs. Elmer Stevens and Mrs.
Clyde Matney. He also leaves three brothers, Lewis of Fayette county, Ed of Indianapolis and Lee of Noblesville, and two sisters, Mrs.
Alma Lindsay of Chicago and Mrs.
Kate Cook of Seattle, Wash.

The funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock at the Methodist church in Glenwood.

RUSH COUNTY FARMERS AT NATIONAL MEETING

Some Officers of Rush County Association and Others at Farm Bureau Convention

WOMEN WILL GO TUESDAY

A number of Rush county farmers including Fred Bell, the president, and Charles Spencer, vice-president of the Rush County Farmers Association, went to Indianapolis today for the opening of the national convention of the American Farm Bureau Federation, which will continue until Wednesday evening. Harry McMillin, an officer of the Union township association and Arthur Looney were also among the local farmers attending today.

Donald Ball, county agent, will probably be present for Tuesday's sessions, and Howard Ewbank, secretary of the county association, may not be able to attend before the closing day. Other farmers are expected to attend the meeting Tuesday and Wednesday.

Rush county women interested in farm bureau work are expected to be present or the auxiliary meeting of the national convention which will be held at the Claypool hotel Tuesday afternoon. A number of women in this county have received very urged, personal requests from Mrs. Lewis Taylor and Mrs. E. E.
Reynolds to attend and hear the discussions on home economics, rural extension work and educational problems. Other states will be well represented at the meeting, it is stated.

2 CASES REQUIRE JURY THIS WEEK

Case Tomorrow of Innis vs Colter
Will Begin And Thursday of
Morris vs Wewee

SPECIAL VENIRE THURSDAY

Court Orders Ten Names Drawn
For That Case—Mrs. McGinn
Wants Divorce

The jury has been called into service for tomorrow in the circuit court when the case of Innis vs Colter will be tried, and on Thursday the jury will be used again in the case of Morris vs Wewee, with a special venire of ten names drawn for that day.

The case tomorrow was filed several months ago by Alonzo Innis and his son Hubert Innis of near Milroy against Samuel H. Colter and Edgar A. Archey, also of Milroy. The plaintiffs ask $2,000 judgment for alleged damages and the case involves a hog sale in which the plaintiffs allege that they purchased hogs that were diseased with cholera.

The plaintiffs assert that they purchased the hogs advertised and guaranteed to be double immuned from hog cholera, when the two defendants held a sale at Hope, Ind. The complaint asserts further that the hogs developed cholera and that they were damaged financially for treating them and that they lost a large number by death, as well as infecting the land upon which the hogs were brought. On these three counts, the plaintiffs ask $2,000 judgment.

This is the second case in which the defendants have figured here within the last year, over the same hog sale.

The case which will be heard Thursday was filed by John B. Morris, a local hardware merchant against Leonard Wewee on an account involving the purchase of a motor tractor. The case has been pending for several months and promises to be lively contested. This morning the defendant petitioned the court that a special venire should be drawn, and consequently Judge Sparks ordered 10 additional jurymen drawn for Thursday.

In the divorce case filed last week
by Emmett McGinn against Dora McGinn, both of Milroy, this morning Mrs. McGinn filed a cross complaint against the plaintiff, in which she charges her husband with cruel and inhuman treatment. She alleges that on one occasion he took two razors and drew them across his throat, telling her that he was going to commit suicide unless she left him. She asserted in the complaint that he did this to scare her.

She also denied that the accusations made by the plaintiff in his complaint were true, and that certain portions of them had been admitted by the plaintiff after the filing of the divorce action, as being false statements. She states that she is the mother of four children and has made a living for them by taking in washings and asks the court for a divorce on her cross complaint and $1,000 alimony.

NO EXTENSION OF TIME IS ALLOWED

Fourth Installment of Income and Excess Profits Taxes Falls Due
on December 15

STATUTE CHANGED IN 1918

Ten Days of Grace Not Permitted
Such as Was Provided in The Law of Previous Year

It appears that some taxpayers believe that they have ten days grace on the fourth installment of the income and excess profits taxes due December 15. Such a provision was contained in the 1917 Revenue Act, but was removed by the Revenue Act of 1918. No extension can be granted under the law.

In order that this impression may be corrected, it is desired that the widest publicity be given to the following statement which has been sent out by William N. Williams, of the internal revenue bureau:

"December 15th is the last day for the payment of the fourth installment of the income and excess profits taxes due this year. To avoid penalty, the tax must be in the offices of Collectors of Internal Revenue or branch offices by midnight of that date.

"Inquiries reaching the Commissioner of Internal Revenue indicate a belief that taxpayers have ten days grace on this installment. Such a provision was contained in the 1917 Revenue Act, but was removed by the Revenue Act of 1918.

"Payment of the fourth installment may be made in cash or by money order or check. The Bureau of Internal Revenue urges that whenever possible payment be made by check or money order. This method helps the taxpayer by saving him a trip to the Collector's office and avoids congestion at the cashiers' window. Check or money order should be made payable to 'Collector of Internal Revenue.'

"Bills will be sent to taxpayers, but failure to receive a bill does not relieve the taxpayer of his obligation to pay on time."

JUNE ELLIOTT CO. TONIGHT

Second Number of Lyceum Course
at Graham Annex Auditorium

The second number of the winter lyceum course under the auspices of the American Legion post of this city, will be given at the Graham Annex auditorium this evening at 8 o'clock by the June Elliott company, a group of talented musicians who,
according to all information received here, are an all-star aggregation.

The company is composed of four musicians who offer a program of variety, consisting of vocal and instrumental numbers and dramatic readings. The first number of the course was given by a Hawaiian troupe who pleased a large crowd and it is assured that the entertainment tonight will be up to the standard set by the opening one.

MRS. LUCINDA GUFFIN DIES

Body of Late Harry Guffin's Widow to Be Buried Here

Mrs. Lucinda Guffin, widow of the late Harry Guffin, died Sunday morning at her home in Indianapolis following a few weeks illness of pneumonia. The deceased, who was 79 years of age, formerly lived in this city and was extensively related to the Guffin and Maury families living in this county.

The body of the deceased will be brought to this city over the I. & C. traction line tomorrow, arriving here at 1:05 p. m., and will be taken immediately to the East Hill Chapel where short funeral services will be held and burial will take place.

MOVE INTO NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Amos are moving into their new home, corner of Main and Fifth streets, which has just been completed.

TWO CARS IN A COLLISION

Both Machines Damaged in South
Main Street Accident

Two automobiles collided this morning in South Main street, and each machine was badly damaged,
but the occupants escaped unhurt.
One machine driven by Wilbur Snodgrass, was going south in Main street and the other one, driven by Frank Moore of Clarksburg was going north, when the driver of the latter is said to have become confused and drove into the Snodgrass machine. Both machines were damaged considerably, with broken lights, bent fenders and radiators, and the Snodgrass machine had a broken front wheel.

TEACHERS FAVOR AN INCREASED SCHOOL TAX

Sixth District Educational Association Would Equalize School Privileges of State

RESOLUTIONS ARE ADOPTED

The Sixth District Educational association before adjourning at the Graham high school building Saturday afternoon, adopted a set of resolutions which was prepared by a committee.

Among the more important subjects dealt with in the resolutions was the approval of the effort being made in the state to increase the state school tax enough to equalize the school privileges for all the children of Indiana. It was pointed out that in some of the poorer counties,
the total school term each year amounts to only 95 days.

Another paragraph of the resolutions declared for a law which would increase the pay of county school attendance officers. It was stated that the present wage is not sufficient for the amount of time and attention the office requires.

A. M. Taylor, local high school principal, was chairman of the committee.

FOURTH PILGRIMAGE SET FOR FRIDAY NIGHT

Tall Cedars of Lebanon Will Have Banquet at 6:30, Followed by an Entertainment

FIFTY TO BE IN THE CLASS

The fourth pilgrimage of the Rushville Grove No. 6, Tall Cedars of Lebanon, will be held in the Masonic Temple here next Friday evening and a large class of candidates from Rush county Masonic lodges will be initiated.

A banquet will be served at six-thirty o'clock, to be followed with an entertainment by the Omar Wilson Concert Party of Greencastle, Ind., and at eighty-thirty the procession will commence to ascend the stairs which lead to the "Lebanon Mountains." William H. Swintz, grand secretary of the Indiana
grand lodge of Masons, will be present for the ceremony.

The entertainment promises to be the best ever offered at any of the Rushville grove pilgrimages. The concert company is composed of the following persons who will give a program of vocal music; Omar Wilson, bass-baritone; Martha Trip-peer, coloratura soprano, and the Tiger male quartet—Edwin Sayre, tenor; Paul Rhoadarmer, tenor;
Mark Bills, baritone and James Me-
Adams, basso.

It is expected there will be at least fifty in the class. The third pilgrimage was a big success, the candidates all being Masons belonging to lodges outside of Rush county.

ASK CONGRESS FOR OVER FOUR BILLION

Federal Departments Submit Reports Today on Estimated Expenses For Fiscal Year

THE LARGEST ON RECORD

Republican Leaders Have Already
Served Notice That Requests
Will be Pruned

(By United Press)

Washington, Dec. 6.—Appropriations of $4,068,449,857.36 for the regular expenses of the government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1922, were asked of congress today
by Secretary of Treasury Houston in submitting the annual estimates of the executive departments.

The amount requested exceeds the appropriation for the current fiscal year by $855,407,372.68, although it is approximately $400,000,000 less than the annual estimates submitted by the secretary in 1919.

Congress reduced the appropriations for the current fiscal year by $1,600,000,000 and republican leaders have also served notice that the request submitted today will be similarly treated.

Compared to the annual appropriations of pre-war years, Houston's estimates were nearly four times as great. But despite the fact that the expenses may be less,
the estimates do not include the appropriation necessary for the payment of the six month guaranty by the government to the railroads after they were returned to private ownership and the increased naval building program that will be recommended by Secretary of Navy Daniels or any allowances of compensations which some government employees are demanding.

The greatest appropriation will be those caused by the war which will stand out above those reported by 75 percent of the total estimates.

The first is for $1,188,404,864.87 for interest on and seeking funds to pay off the national war debt of more than twenty-four billion dollars. The estimate was $922,650,000.
The total estimates for these two accounts were $40,000,000 less than the appropriation during the fiscal year.

The war department's request for the next year will total approximately $935,000,000 or almost to the total expenses of the government
ten years ago.

The naval department estimates totaled more than $695,000,000 during the next year, or approximately $255,000,000 more than was granted by congress during the current year.

DISTRICT MEETING OF K. OF P. HERE DEC. 10

Lodges in Eight Counties Will be Represented at Annual Convention Here Friday

The local Knights of Pythias lodge will entertain the lodges in the Sixth district here Friday, when every lodge in the eight counties will send large delegations to take part in the annual convention. The counties which will be represented are Fayette, Franklin, Hancock, Henry, Rush, Shelby, Union and Wayne and almost every town in these counties have lodges which will send delegates and members.

Thomas L. Neal, grand chancellor of Crawfordsville, Robert A.
Brown of Indianapolis and several deputies chancellors will attend and address the meeting. All sessions will be held in the K. of P. hall.

Each district in the state will hold a meeting some time in this month and January, and the main idea this year is to stimulate interest in a membership campaign in Indiana and the goal has been placed at 75,000 members. Each district will organize with membership committees, and each lodge will also be impressed with the importance of the drive.

BAD BACK TODAY?

Backache is usually kidney-ache and makes you dull, nervous and tired. Use Doan's Kidney Pills for weak kidneys—the remedy recommended by your friends and neighbors. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. Joseph Doll, 521 W. 3rd St., Rushville says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for two or more years when I was troubled with kidney complaint. I have found them to be a very reliable remedy. At times my back was very weak and lame and I would have to remain in bed. My back would ache intensely through the small part. My kidneys were very irregular in action, too. Every time I have been this way I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and never have they failed to relieve me."

Mrs. Doll gave the above statement August 26, 1915 and on November 1, 1920, she added: "I still have the same high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills that I had several years ago. I use them occasionally as a kidney tonic and get satisfactory results."

LITTLE SPIRITS NITRE SOLD HERE

Local Druggists Make it Difficult to Buy by Scrutinizing Every Demand for Preparation

REGULATIONS ARE EXPECTED

Accurate Record of Sales of Jamaica Ginger Must be Kept After Feb. 18, Order States

Sweet spirits of nitre, used by some persons as a substitute for whiskey, cannot be purchased in large quantities in this city, according to a local druggist, who was questioned about the demand for the preparation. Spirits of nitre, it may be explained for the benefit of the uninitiated, is made of alcohol with a small percent of nitrous ether. Those whose are feeling the effect of the prohibition enforcement law and are willing to go to almost any extremity in their effort to find a substitute, have purchased spirits of nitre and after evaporating the ether they have pure alcohol.

The process of removing the ether from the alcohol is quite simple. The container holding the solution is placed over a fire and in a few minutes the ether is evaporated, leaving only the alcohol. It is said that while the process is simple, it is at the same time dangerous for the alcohol ignites quickly and if the flames reach it difficulty is sometimes encountered in extinguishing the fire before the preparation disappears.

It is not so hard to detect a sale of spirits of nitre that is intended to be used as a substitute for whiskey, a local druggist stated when asked about the demand here. He said that it is sold in small quantities when it is intended for medicinal purposes, but that the man who wants it as a substitute will ask for a larger quantity.

The federal prohibition enforcement law does not provide that druggists shall keep a record of the sales of spirits of nitre, but the inspectors frequently ask about the quantity of the sales. If they are large in proportion to the drug business that is done by the store the inquiry sometimes goes further. It is expected that within a short time spirits of nitre will be placed in the same class with other medicines which are used as booze substitutes.

Jamaica ginger, which contains eighty-six percent alcohol, will be placed under stricter regulations beginning February 18, under a ruling recently issued by the prohibition enforcement commissioner. The druggists handling Jamaica ginger will be required to first get a federal liquor license and will have to keep an accurate record of all sales. Some time ago it was discovered that Jamaica ginger was being used as a substitute and that in large cities some druggists were buying it by the barrel.

ARGENTINA WITHDRAWS

Republic Gives up Seat in The League of Nations

Geneva, Switzerland, Dec. 6—Honorio Puerrydon notified President Hymans of the league of nations assembly that the Argentine delegation had withdrawn.

Puerrydon who is the foreign minister of Argentine and head of the delegation, declared. Argentine would resume its place if the assembly would withdraw its action of last Thursday postponing the consideration of all amendments until 1921. Puerrydon alone voted against the proposal to postpone all amendments but was overruled by President Hymans. It was reported before Argentine's action was announced, that the whole question would be reopened today anyway.

Gulf Stream's Course.
The force and velocity of the Gulf stream vary, to some extent, but its course does not materially change until it has run hundreds of miles northeastward off the coast of the United States. Gradually it does then shift its direction more eastward, at the same time spreading like a fan and becoming shallower.

An Ancient Christmas Dish.

An indispensable Christmas dish of ancient times was "frumenty" or "frumante." Here is the recipe for making the dish according to a faithful old chronicler: "Take clean wheat and bray it in a mortar until the hulls be all gone off, and seethe it until it burst, and take it up and let it cool; and take clean, fresh broth and sweet milk of almonds or sweet milk of kine and temper it all; and take the yolks of eggs. Boil it a little and set it down and mess it forth with fat venison or fresh mutton." Frumenty was often served alone without venison or mutton. When served by itself it was well sweetened.

A BIG JOKE

Drck: Now I hope I won't get a treatise on "How to Swim" for a Christmas gift.

A Form of Generosity.

"That fellow is kind of hard to depend on."

"He seems to be very generous."

"Yes. He's a regular Santa Claus."

"I don't understand."

"He is willing to take the credit for giving you anything you want provided someone else stand the expense."

Five Kings Ruled in Ireland.

In the twelfth century Ireland consisted of five kingdoms—Ulster, Leinster, Meath, Connaught and Munster—besides numerous petty principalities.

WALKING AND TALKING DOLLS

Lifelike Forms Gracefully Step Across the Floor Saying "Mamma" or "Papa."

DOLLS that walk and talk and wink and roll their eyes are Parisian Christmas novelties in toyland. These dolls seem almost human, as they walk in sprightly style across the floor saying "mamma" or "papa" just as real children would.

Walking dolls being a new invention, seem wonderful and bring screams of delight from little girls and boys, too, who watch with intense interest every step of the lifelike dolls as they are exhibited in the shops.

The machinery that moves the doll's legs is set in motion by a key that is inserted in the works at the waist line.

The voice is made active by works that are wound with a key.

The eyes move as the body sways from side to side, just as the real children's eyes roll and blink, etc.

CHRISTMAS WEEK IN ENGLAND

Time When Scattered Families Are United and Tender Memories Are Revived.

MANY and great are the changes which have occurred in England since Dickens wrote "A Christmas Carol," but they have not affected the national love for the festival and the determination to preserve unimpaired the traditional warmth and heartiness of its celebration. Christmas week is still the great week of the year for the English people. It is the one week when scattered families are reunited, when tender memories and old associations are revived, when friend greets friend with a cheery expansiveness in striking contrast with the characteristic reserve of the English nature, so, undemonstrative to those who do not know it well, apparently so distant and unsympathetic.

From Wednesday all business will be suspended, not to be resumed till Monday morning. The whole nation will give itself up to good cheer and good fellowship, and for a brief season, all strife and controversy are hushed, and peace, charity and concord reign supreme.

Intelligent Giving

Christmas gifts are neither more nor less than translated thoughts. A selfish or a careless Christmas gift is worth no more than a selfish or a careless thought to the receiver, no matter what its cost in money may have been. That is why many a youngster and many a grown up also, finds Christmas day a time of bitter disillusionment and disappointment.

Presents bought in selfish hope of return, or in careless fulfillment of obligation, or even for the fleeting pleasure of the moment can never bring real appreciation to the receiver or real pleasure to the giver. For they lack the essential elements of "good will" and thought for the future.

None of us has so much that we do not desire those dear to us to have more. None of us has lived so successfully that we do not desire others to avoid the mistakes we have made. The successful Christmas gifts are those which are based not on the selfish pleasure of the moment but on thought and care for the future. None of us knows the future, but each of us hopes for the future for those near us.

Scarcely a Christmas gift is dispatched in this country that is not accompanied by at least a perfunctory hope for the future. But it is possible to give gifts which carry not only a hope but an assurance for the future, gifts that develop character, that inspire success, that promote independence. You can give your youngsters a habit that is worth more than money. You can give them a training that should be part of the equipment of every American. You can give them a protection against misfortune which will last them all their lives.

Too Much of a Bad Thing

When a fellow buys an automobile he expects to secure some pleasure from its use.

But the fear of theft is a continual burden on his mind. He never knows what morning he will find his garage empty, or when his car will be "lifted" on the street.

That is because our laws are not adequate and our courts are in many cases too lenient.

Automobile thievery has multiplied at an astounding rate, and few of the crooks are ever brought to justice. Even when caught they are too frequently let off with a nominal fine.

What we need is a law making it more difficult to steal a car, and with a generous reward to any person furnishing information that leads to the apprehension and conviction of an offender.

Between the reward and the "pen" the lucrative occupation of stealing cars would not appeal so strongly to the gentry, who are now working it to perfection.

In some society it is considered quite immodest to expose an ear to the vulgar public gaze. But men do not object to this harmless craze so long as short stockings and bare knees are not taboo.

A town that is worth living in is worth trading in. Home town boosters will keep this fact in mind when doing their Christmas shopping.

A fellow gets a lot of sport out of keeping tab on his neighbors until they begin to keep tab on him.

It's quite possible to work hard and still take life easy. It is all in the way you look at your job.

When a fellow gets rich quick the next thing he wants to do is to get richer quicker.

People who fly high don't always have wings.

Why is it necessary to have so many unnecessary people in every town?

A CHRISTMAS CAROL

Come back to Bethlehem,
The year is on the wane;
A truce to strife that wearies life,
A truce to grief and pain.
Oh, heart, return to Bethlehem
And hear its song again!

If siren voices luring thee
Have turned thy thoughts aside,
If thou hast quaffed the bitter draft
Of envy or of pride,
If thou in agony of shame
Hast thy dear Lord denied,

Come back today to Bethlehem!
Though thou hast wandered far,
No rest shall fill thy yearning breast
Until thou see the Star.
Oh, heart, return to Bethlehem,
Where yet the angels are!

CHRISTMAS DAY.

Oh, blessed day which gives the eternal lie
To self and sense and all the brute within—
Oh, come to us amid this war of life:
To hall and hovel come; to all who toll
In senate, shop or study, and to those Who, sundered by the wastes of half a world,
Ill warned and sorely tempted, ever face
Nature's brute powers and men unmannered to brutes—
Come to them, blest and blessing, Christmas Day.
Tell them once more the tale of Bethlehem—
The kneeling shepherds and the Babe divine—
And keep them men indeed, fair Christmas Day. —Charles Kingsley.

Amusements

"The Fortune Teller," Mystic

"The Fortune Teller," with Marporie Rambeau in the leading role, which is said to tell a morality story in an immortal way, comes to the Mystic theater today and will remain over Tuesday.

Because of the popularity of the star, and the beauty and apparel of the story, the management has arranged to extend the run of the picture longer than the usual super-specials.

"The Fortune Teller" is a powerful story with compelling situations. It will not detract from the suspense interest to divulge that the theme—mother love—is inextricably bound up with psychic phenomena, a subject which Sir Oliver Lodge, the noted scientist and spiritualist, has done so much to popularize as a study.

The narrative abounds with human interest situations rich in dramatic expression. It tells of regeneration where none seemed possible and the influence of mother love in the upbringing of a child. It tells eloquently of the triumph of mother love over material things, of science, jealousy and devilry. It tells a story which the stage with its limitations could not tell.

MRS. MACSWINEY IS IN NEW YORK NOW

Arrives Here in Order to Testify Before a Commission Regarding The Irish Situation

LARGE CROWD GREET'S HER

New York, Dec. 6.—A great impressive gathering of Sinn Fein sympathizers met Mrs. Muriel MacSwiney, widow of the late lord mayor of Cork, who landed Saturday from the White Star liner Celtic and went in an automobile to the St. Regis hotel.

Mrs. MacSwiney was accompanied by Mary MacSwiney, her sister-in-law. She came to this country to testify before the commission formed by the New York Nation, a weekly magazine, to investigate the Irish situation.

In anticipation of trouble, several hundred police were on hand to cope with the situation. They held the crowds back to the sidewalk as the procession drove to the hotel. A big delegation was on hand. E. DeValera was represented by his secretary. Representatives of all the seagoing unions acted as the honorary guard for the procession when Mrs. MacSwiney went from the ship to the automobile.

The crowd was dense and frequently broke through the police guard. Several times the policemen were knocked from their motorcycles by the throng.

WHEN A WOMAN IS NERVOUS—WORRIED

The lives of most women are full of worry. Men's troubles are bad enough, but women's are worse. Worry makes women sick. It pulls them down, and in their weakened condition they are subject to pains, aches, weakness, backaches, headaches and dizzy spells.

Most women neglect their health, and for this they pay the penalty. Any woman will find that neglect does not pay. A little more attention to health would brighten up her life. If she asks her neighbors she finds that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription benefits a woman's whole system. It not only acts upon the troubles and weaknesses peculiar to women, but is an all-round tonic that braces the entire body, overcoming nervousness, sleeplessness, headaches, dizziness and a run-down condition.

MOUNT VERNON, ILL.—"I am glad to say that Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription proved just as good as it is advertised to be. I was weak and lacked strength and ambition. I had worked hard and was poorly. I used the 'Favorite Prescription' and it gave me new strength, and seemed to put new life in me. I was pleased that it did so much for me and I am very glad to recommend it."—Mrs. WILL NEWBY, No. 1213 West Broadway.

Standard for the Christmas Tree

By DOROTHY PERKINS

(Copyright by A. Neely Hall.)

Don't let the preparation of a standard for the Christmas tree go until the last minute.

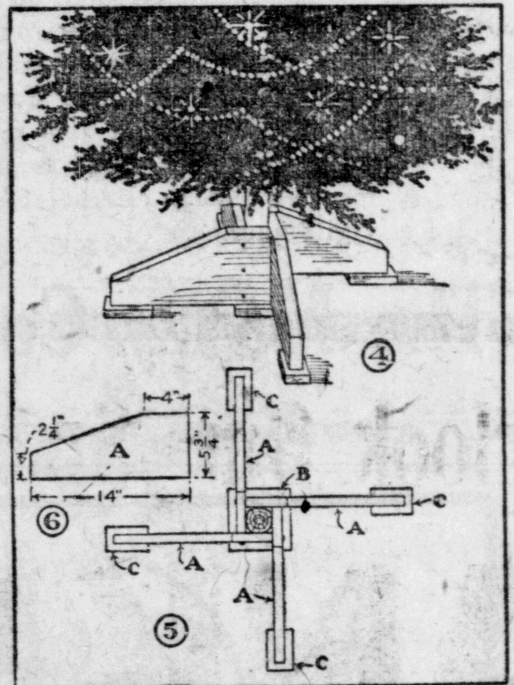

In the illustrations are shown three good schemes for standards.

The cross standard in Fig. 1 requires two pieces of 2 by 4, 18 or 20

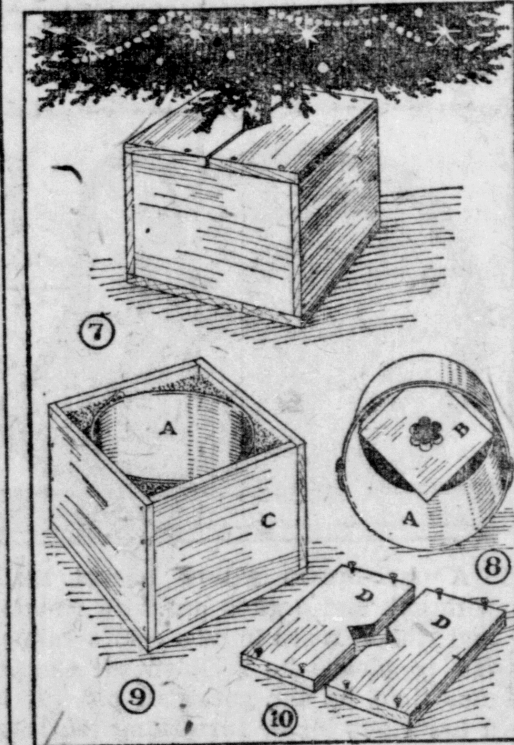

inches long (A and B, Fig. 2). To cross these pieces with tops even as shown, it is necessary to halve them, that is, cut from the center of each a piece equal to the width of, and one-half the thickness of, the other piece, as shown in Fig. 3. Then they will fit into one another. Saw along the sides of the notches, then split out the wood between the saw cuts with a chisel. The hole for the tree should be at least 2 inches in diameter. If you haven't an expansion-bit that can be set to cut a hole of this diameter, bore a ring of small holes, and trim up to the 2-inch diameter with a chisel. To the under side of A and B, at the ends, nail the shoe-blocks C. It is not necessary to nail A to B, if you make them fit snugly.

One advantage the standard in Fig. 4 has over that in Fig. 1 is that it is not necessary to bore a hole for the tree trunk. Also, it is more pleasing in appearance. The plan view (Fig. 5) shows how the four arms A are fastened so as to enclose a pocket for the tree trunk. You will notice that each piece is fastened with nails driven through its face into the end of the adjoining member. A pattern for arms A is shown in Fig. 6. Boards 5/8 inch or 3/4 inch thick should be used. The center shoe B (Fig. 5), and the shoes C, should be cut of the right size to make projections of about 1/2 inch.

A Christmas tree will not dry out and drop its needles as quickly if stood in water, and Fig. 7 shows a scheme which I have found successful. For a water receptacle, get a wooden or iron scrub-pail (A, Fig. 8). Cut a square block to fit in the pail bottom (B), and through the center of this cut a round hole to receive the end of the tree trunk. Make a box of just the right size for the pail to fit in (C, Fig. 9). Perhaps you can find a box of the right size or one which will require but little alteration. Make a cover for the box out of two pieces of board of equal width, as shown at D (Fig. 10), and notch the center of the inner edge of each, so that the pieces will fit around the tree trunk. Provide screws or hooks-and-eyes for fastening the cover boards to the box top. After setting the pail into the box, fill the square corners with sand to make the standard more solid.

There will be no need of painting the standards in Figs. 1 and 7, if you dress them with crepe paper.

Will Your Wife Have a HOOSIER This Christmas?

You owe it to that wife of yours to make her days happier and her years longer.

Every moment she spends at trying work in her kitchen saps her energy and takes the bloom from her life.

Forget all ordinary presents this Christmas and make it a HOOSIER holiday.

Then the Christmas spirit will pervade your kitchen every day of the year.

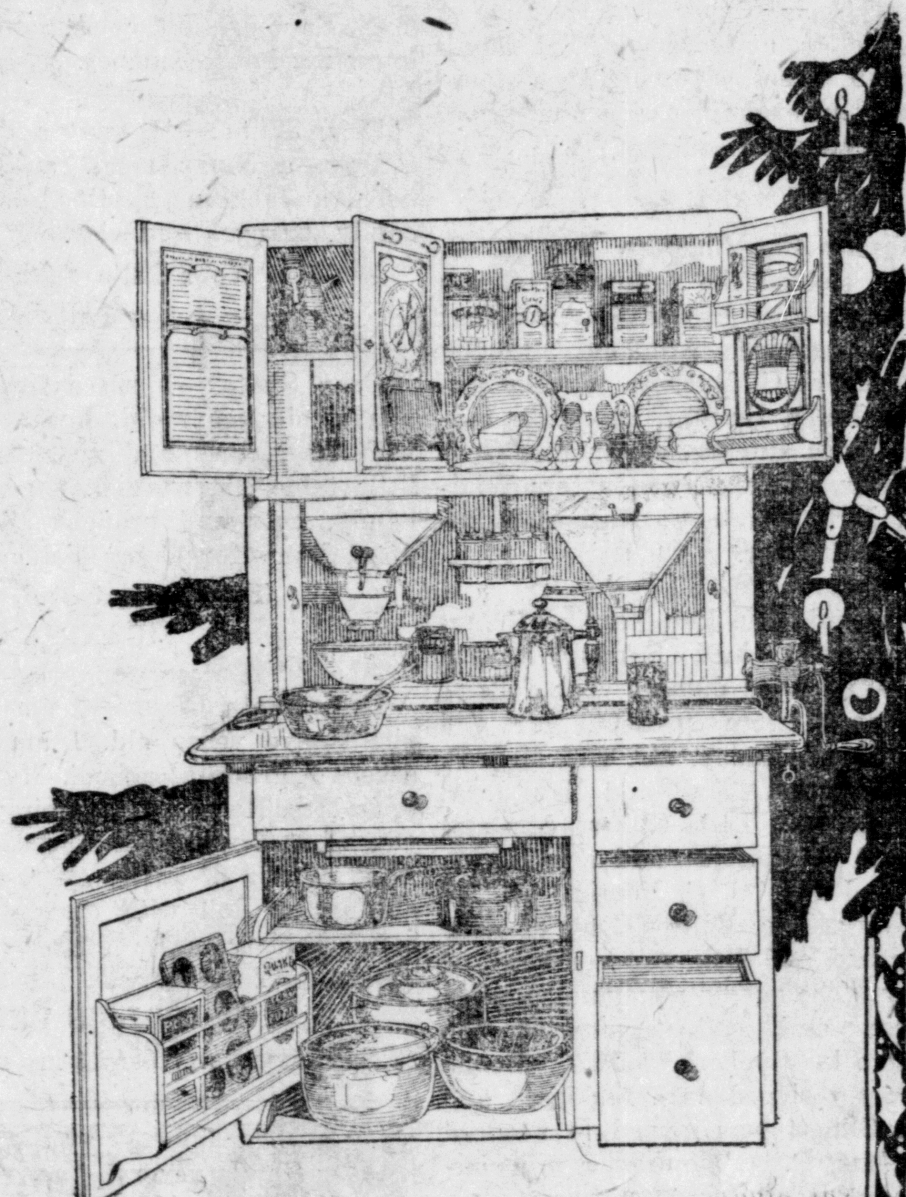

For the Hoosier is America's foremost kitchen convenience. Not just an ordinary kitchen cabinet, but one with special features carefully worked out to make kitchen work easier.

If you expect to buy a Hoosier this season—don't delay. The demand is increasing so rapidly, it is doubtful if the supply will hold out. To be sure of having a Hoosier for Christmas—better order it today!

The "solemn referendum" on the league of nations' covenant at last month's election, would indicate his intentions with regard to the treaty. It will make slight difference what President Wilson suggests, however, as Republican plans for handling the treaty are already mapped out. The extra session next March or April is to handle that unless the unexpected should happen, and Wilson should send the treaty back now, with an acceptance of senate reservations.

Here is some of the work which this session will be called on to dispose of:

- Fourteen appropriation bills.
- Reapportionment of representation in the House of Representatives, based on the 1920 census.
- A national budget bill.
- A bill to amend the Volstead prohibition enforcement law to make prohibition less stringent.

A bill to make the Volstead more stringent, and to give the prohibition commissioner a bigger force, more money and wider powers.

A demand for a sweeping investigation of prohibition enforcement.

Some measure of tax revision, although the main program of tax and tariff revision is to be undertaken at the next session, according to present plans of Republican leaders.

A soldier bonus bill.

Measures to lower the cost of living.

Proposed amendments of the railroad law.

A treaty with Japan covering land ownership by Japanese in California and other states.

A treaty with Colombia, settling

Measures to improve housing conditions.

Proposals to curb the power of grain exchanges to control the price of wheat and other grains.

A large number of welfare measures.

In addition, some new investigations doubtless will be undertaken. The senate campaign fund investigating committee is expected to make a partial report, and will also continue its inquiry. Having asked how candidates and parties raised the money, the committee now will ask how they spent it. A final report may also be made on the Newberry election case.

The SANDMAN STORY

PUSSIE'S REVENGE

LITTLE Pussie White was feeling very unhappy one morning as she sat in the barn door in the sun licking her paws.

Pussie White had only lived at the farm for a short time, and she was much younger than the other pussies, Tabble and Blackie.

The reason Pussie White was so unhappy this morning was because the two older pussies had made fun of her for not catching as many mice as they did the night before.

"Of course, she may in time be able to catch a few more than she does now," said Blackie to Tabble, "but I am afraid this new puss will never prove to be a good mouser like you or me."

Tabble had tossed her head and replied that there were few pussies who could hunt mice as they did. "They may hunt for mice, my dear Blackie," she had said, "but they do not catch smart as they thought themselves to be.

Pussie White had a friend that lived down the road, so she took herself off to tell Peter Dog her troubles.

Peter was a very wise little fellow and very fond of Pussie, for they had played together when Pussie was a kitten, and she had never scratched him as the other kittens had done.

"I think I can help you, Pussie," said Peter. "I am not at all fond of mice, but I am sure I can catch them and tonight if you can manage to keep Blackie and Tabble away from the barn I am sure we can catch mice enough to surprise those two spiteful creatures."

That night when the three pussies were eating their supper in the farm-house kitchen Pussie White slipped away before the others had finished.

Down the cellar stairs she ran and climbed out of the window where there was an opening for the pussies to go in and out.

When Pussie White went out she managed somehow to knock the board that was fastened on the outside and down it slipped right over the opening.

Some time later when Blackie and Tabble wanted to go to the barn for the night, as they always did, they had to stay in the cellar all night.

The next morning Pussie White did not care for her breakfast and smiled to herself as she heard the farmer's wife say to the other pussies, "I guess Pussie White caught all the mice last night and you two did not catch any, from the way you eat."

But her revenge was complete when later Blackie and Tabble ran into the barn and could not find a mouse, for those that Peter and Pussie White did not catch the night before were frightened and ran away from the barn to live.

Tabble and Blackie did not make fun of Pussie White again, but they never knew how Pussie managed to clear the barn in a single night.

them. Pussie White may in time, as you say, catch a few more mice than she does now—she must learn something from watching two such experts as we are."

And this was the reason Pussie White was so unhappy and as she washed her face she was thinking how she could catch more mice and show Tabble and Blackie that she was just as

THE GIRL ON THE JOB

How to Succeed—How to Get Ahead—How to Make Good

By JESSIE ROBERTS

JOB AND YOUR HEALTH

IS A WOMAN as strong as a man? Given the same stature and weight, can she do equally hard work and not suffer for it?

Among many other matters that the war proved or disproved, this seems also to be settled—and settled in the negative. She can't!

Woman can do the same work, given a like training. But she breaks down under it where the man remains uninjured.

In France and England women for five years did the work of men. They have not stood up under the strain as men do. In England, physicians' reports show that of two thousand five hundred women examined in one industry, 42 per cent were found to be suffering from severe physical exhaustion or actual ill health, brought-on by overwork. Yet men stood up under the same work without difficulty.

We are none of us likely to go into munition factories or to undertake heavy labor. But there is more in this than the fact that a woman ought not to attempt such feats. A girl who is looking about for a job ought to think of it in regard to herself—in regard to her health. The nervous and high-strung girl should not take up telephoning, for instance, nor should she go into a large and noisy office. She won't stand the strain.

A girl I knew who made a success of a small tea and lunch room got ambitious and took the whole house. She rented rooms and served a dinner as well as breakfast and lunch. She gave good meals and good service, had a large force of assistants to manage, and in six months she broke down and had to go to a sanitarium.

What's the use?

Your health is priceless. And once shaken, it isn't easy to get into good shape again. Look at your health as part of your capital, and conserve it. Never let your job borrow from that capital. There are times when you cannot control the thing, and when you do you must do the best you can and hope to get through with it. But most of us are just careless. It doesn't pay.

This man had severe case of heartburn, sick stomach, gas collected pressing against his heart, caused shortness of breath. Lips turned blue, says I feel like another person since I've taken Dreco."

"I don't believe any one ever had a worse case of heartburn and vomiting than mine I had to stop work and go to bed for I was all in and felt like I was going to die. The gas pressed against my heart and lungs, my lips turned blue and my breathing was so bad I was alarmed. The sour gas gave me cramps and my bowels were so constipated that I was completely exhausted after each movement. I was so dizzy that I could hardly keep from falling and my stomach churned and turned over like a washing machine," declared Mr. August Poulsen of 425 W. Maryland Ave., Evansville, Ind.

"Dreco has enabled me to get back on the job and I feel sure of the future for I know what to do now when I need help. My stomach is soothed, nerves quieted, bowels move at regular times without a bit of straining, have no more gas. I eat like a hungry man should and sleep sound all through the night."

Dreco being an herb juice medicine, combines pleasantly with the juices of the stomach, and the results are quick and lasting.

All druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced in Rushville by F. B. Johnson & Co.—(Adv.)

FEDERAL LIQUOR
PROBE IS BEGUN

Grand Jury Convenes in Indianapolis Today to Investigate Alleged Whisky Ring

OTHER MATTERS COMING UP

Violations of Election and Interstate Commerce Laws to Come Under Scrutiny

(By United Press)
Indianapolis Ind, Dec. 6—The federal grand jury met here today and probably its most important sitting for years.

It will investigate alleged violations of the prohibition laws, the election laws, the interstate commerce laws, and other matters more or less of routine nature.

One of the important angles of its investigation will be directed toward a gigantic whisky ring which is alleged to exist in northern and eastern Indiana. Many witnesses have been subpoenaed.

Next in importance probably will be the sifting of election fraud charges growing out of the primary elections, in which the cities of Gary, Evansville, Muncie, Delphi,

DON'T SUFFER
WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief. Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

Jeffersonville and Indianapolis are involved. There are also several individual cases said to have been uncovered by agents of the department of justice.

There seems to be some question as to whether the grand jury will take up the charges made by State Senator Joseph Cravens, of Madison on the floor of the senate that a combination exists between Governor James P. Goodrich and officials of the Big Four railroad whereby coal mines in which Cravens said the governor was financially interested obtained a preference on coal cars. Shortly after Cravens voiced his charges, Goodrich challenged him to turn over whatever evidence he had to federal authorities. Cravens went to District Attorney Frederick Van Nuys and asked him to place the matter before the grand jury and Van Nuys said he would.

So far as the liquor probe is concerned, federal agents have been investigating conditions in Richmond, Muncie, Anderson, Indianapolis, Goshen, Elkhart, South Bend, Michigan City and other cities in the northeastern part of the state. They charge that a combination of men engaged in illicit liquor traffic maintained headquarters in Richmond for all underground whisky business in the middlewest with a chain operating between Chicago, Pittsburgh, Louisville and other important cities and the Indiana places as "way stations."

The election fraud charges in Indianapolis and in some of the other cities are said to have been the outgrowth of failure by registration officials to list some names on the official lists.

WISCONSIN BEST TEAM BUT OHIO STATE WON

This is View of E. C. Patterson in Selecting all Western Conference. Eleven

LEADERS DIVIDE HONORS

New York, Dec. 6—Four players from Wisconsin, four from Illinois two from Ohio State and one from Iowa have won places on the "All-Western Conference" football team picked by E. C. Patterson in Collier's Weekly of December 11.

Commenting on football in the Western Conference, Patterson says that 400,000 spectators paid between $500,000 and $600,000 to see the conference games. He attributes the success of the season to the interest shown by the fans and makes an appeal on behalf of them to have the players numbered in the future.

"Man for man," he says, "Wisconsin was unquestionably represented by the best team in the conference, but, notwithstanding this, she lost an early game to Ohio State by sheer stupidity on her side and daring brilliancy on the part of Wilce's scrappy eleven."

"Ohio State, the champion, was represented by a team without any outstanding stars, but she had a team where all her men played consistent football from whistle to whistle. Their line work offensively was only fair and defensively it was good, but they proved themselves to be past masters in the forward passing game, with Workman shooting an Stinchcomb receiving. Most, if not all their victories, were the result of this passing. Long passes seemed to predominate. Either one of two things; they knew the passing end better than any team in the conference, or they dared to take more chances."

MEDICAL MEN MEET TO FACE BIG PROBLEM

Physicians Gather at Washington to Plan Campaign Against The "Great Red Plague"

GEN. PERSHING TO ATTEND

Washington, Dec. 6—Physicians and noted men from all parts of the United States will meet here today for a week's conference to plan a nation-wide campaign against the "Great Red Plague," a phrase invented by the United States Public Health Service to stand for two social diseases.

The conference was called by Dr. Hugh Cummings, surgeon general of the United States.

Practically certain cures now have been discovered and proved by medical science for the two most common social diseases, according to officials of the health service. To be effective in combating the diseases in the United States, however, the cures must be understood by the public, officials point out. How to get the facts across convincingly will be one of the problems to be discussed by the conference.

General Pershing is one of many noted men who have accepted invitations to attend. Pershing is expected to describe the methods used by the military authorities to protect the A. E. F. against disease in France and later in Germany.

ATTACKS COAL COMMISSION

National Association Official Says More Production is Needed

Terre Haute, Ind., Dec. 6.—Attacking the Indiana state coal law as ineffective, Alfred Ogle, vice-president of the National coal association, today issued a statement declaring that the only way to meet the fuel shortage is increased production.

He declared that the coal industries were entirely capable of taking care of the shortage. With the bituminous coal production now more than twelve million tons a week, the immediate wants of the country will be supplied and some have obtained their winter coal supply.

FARMERS SEEK PROTECTION

Will go Before Congress to Ask Relief From Lower Prices

Washington, Dec. 6—More than 500,000 farmers banded together, the national board of farm organizations is making preparations for a drive in congress to get legislation to protect the consumers and farmers from being victimized by speculators, President Claud Barrett of the board declared today.

Seven million farmers now are forced to sell the products at the lowest price in history in proportion to the retail price, said Barrett. But hundreds of millions of consumers are paying the highest prices in the history for the same products. Billions of dollars profits go into the pockets of the speculators.

Prominent Western Man Praises Tanlac

G. W. Logan, Peabody, Kansas

"Tanlac has completely restored my health and I feel finer than in years," was the straightforward statement made recently by Mr. George W. Logan, of Peabody, Kansas, one of the most prominent stock-dealers in the Middle West.

"It has not made a new man of me but I have actually gained thirty-five lbs. in weight and feel as well as I ever did in my life. I am telling all of my friends about Tanlac but they can see for themselves what it has done in my case."

"When I began taking Tanlac I was in an awfully run-down condition. I was away off in weight, felt weak and nervous all of the time and couldn't take any interest in my work or anything else. My main trouble was indigestion. Nothing seemed to agree with me. At times I would have dizzy spells and at other times my back would ache so bad that I could hardly get up and down in my chair. This is just the condition I was in when I started to take this medicine. It took just six bottles to make a well man of me. I now have a fine appetite, everything tastes good and my digestion is perfect."

"My wife was also troubled with indigestion at times and it relieved her the same way. You may publish my statement wherever you like and if anyone doubts it, just tell them to see me."

Tanlac is sold in Rushville by F. B. Johnson Co., in Milroy by Dallas Copper, in Manila by Geo. J. Inlow, in Arlington by Mrs. L. T. Davis, in Carthage by Otto C. McCarty, and in New Salem by Mrs. Jos. Hanks, R. R. 2.—(Adv.)

You want better walls and ceilings, in your new home, in present waste space, or to replace cracked plaster and dingy wallpaper. So you ask for Beaver Board, the original wallboard, that has been building better walls and ceilings for a dozen years.

But do you know that inferior wallboards are often sold as Beaver Board? They may look like Beaver Board, feel like Beaver Board, and even claim to be as good as Beaver Board. But they can't give Beaver Board results.

Be sure to get what you ask for. The Beaver trademark on the back of every panel of genuine Beaver Board is there for your protection. Look for it.

CHARGES GAMBLING IN THE BOARD OF TRADE

Sen. Capper Declares That Trading is "to Milk the People of Millions of Dollars"

WANTS PROTECTION BILL

Washington, Dec. 6—Asserting that there is gambling in the grain market in the boards of trade throughout the country, Senator Capper of Kansas declared that it is a grain gambling conspiracy to milk the people and the farmers out of millions of dollars.

With the statement made public today, Senator Capper also expected to introduce in the senate today a bill to protect the farmers by placing a tax on all deals in grain. This bill will stop all gambling in the farm products, Senator Capper declared. It will also eliminate the wheat pit, he declared.

"The Chicago Board of Trade is now conducting the world's greatest gambling institution," the senator charge. "During the month of October the Chicago Board of Trade sold more wheat than was raised in the United States. Farmers have lost more than a billion dollars through this gambling."

HAMON'S WIDOW SAYS HUSBAND WAS KIND

Wife of Murdered Oil King Assails Clara Smith Hamon, Wanted in Connection With Shooting

WERE MARRIED 22 YEARS

Ardmore, Okla., Dec. 6—Assailing Mrs. Clara Smith Hamon, alleged slayer of her husband, Jake Hamon, as "one who came along with beauty and paraded with Mr. Hamon," the widow of the late Jake Hamon, republican committeeman, made her first public statement today.

Her statement was made when

planning to go to Oklahoma City to buy mourning clothes.

"I have lived with Mr. Hamon between the four walls and no one could be kinder than him," she stated in defending her husband.

"He must have done something to provoke her wrath when she did the shooting," she declared. "I have lived with Mr. Hamon for 22 years and much longer than she. I have always been kind to him and never asked him to care for the children only once when Olive Bell was ill with the diphtheria.

"I can bare the hardships of it all, if you would not call her by the name of Mrs. Hamon instead of her own name. She says she is 22 years old when she really is 32 years old.

"The alleged diary said to be written by Mrs. Hamon is one published by an editor of a newspaper for she never had the ability to write one. A newspaper writer wished to gain a reputation and a large sum of money. The picture which has been published does not resemble Mrs. Smith".

Jack Knecht will take over the interests of his brothers and they are demanding their invested capital and for this reason he is forced to raise a large sum of money to satisfy their holdings in this firm. Notwithstanding the reckless price cutting and tremendous selling of the first week, there is still thousands of dollars worth of this immense stock piled high on the shelves that must be turned into money at some price in the next few days, and this great sacrifice of values grows more reckless as the time goes by. ## FINAL SESSION OF CONGRESS OPENS

Next President, Who Sits in His
Place in Senate, is Magnet
Which Draws Crowds

HE MAKES A SHORT ADDRESS

Speech Sets New Precedent in American History—Both Branches
in Session Few Minutes

L. C. MARTIN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
Washington, Dec. 6.—The final session of the Sixty-sixth Congress began at noon today. When it ends on March 3 next, many of the members who today greeted each other will return to private life along with Woodrow Wilson.

The next president of the United States, Senator Harding, who sat in his place, was the magnet that made the senate wing of the capitol the goal of the crowds. His entrance into the senate caused a demonstration by senators and spectators lasting several minutes.

Harding was called to the rostrum for a speech soon after the senate convened and the body adjourned at 12:20, immediately after Harding finished his speech. Harding's speaking to the senate set a new precedent in American history. Before he spoke Senator Heflin of Oklahoma and Senator Glass of Virginia were sworn in and resolutions adopted to notify President Wilson and the house that the senate was ready for business.

The house meanwhile entered into its session without any unusual events. The call of the roll consumed a long time and the senate resolutions were agreed to and the house adjourned until tomorrow.

This short session has been looked on in prospect as a rather routine session, devoted largely to passage of the fourteen appropriation bills. But indications are that it will be crowded with other important business. Not only will the mass of routine be tremendous, but there is to be considerable foundation-laying for the Sixty-Seventh Congress, when the Republicans, in complete control of both legislative and executive branches of the government, propose an ambitious program.

When Congress assembled, interest centered in President Wilson's final message, which probably will be read tomorrow. Both houses, but particularly the senate, wanted to hear whether Wilson, defeated at

BUNDRANT AMONG 49 SEEKING CLEMENCY

Former Rushville Colored Man, Serving Life Sentence For Murder, Wants Term Shortened

PARDON BOARD MEETS TODAY

Leslie Bundrant, Rushville colored man who was sentenced to life imprisonment June 1, 1908, in the Shelby circuit court at Shelbyville for the murder of a colored man named Coleman a short distance east of Rushville, was one of forty-nine "lifers" going before the state board of pardons with pleas of clemency, at the opening of the December session of the board in Indianapolis today. The board will be in session five days.

Bundrant never stood trial although a jury was impaneled in the Rush circuit court to hear the case. Bundrant agreed to plead guilty to a charge of first degree murder providing he was sentenced for life. The judge instructed the local jury to find him guilty and fix the penalty at life imprisonment, but the jury disregarded the instructions and sentenced him to death.

The court set aside the verdict and the case was sent to the Shelby county court, which was then in the same circuit with Rush county, and the agreement between the prosecutor and the defendant, which had been entered into with the consent of the judge, was carried out.

TRYING TO GET A SPECIAL

Local Fans Likely to go to Columbus For Game Friday Night

An effort was being made today to get a special train over the Pennsylvania railroad to take local fans to Columbus next Friday night when Rushville high school's basketball team journeys there for a game.

Sixty-seven in high school this morning signified their readiness to go and it is believed equally that many out of school would attend. J. M. Higgins, the local agent, wired Louisville for terms on a special and it is probable that something definite about the number required and the fare will be known by Tuesday.

Some Officers of Rush County Association and Others at Farm Bureau Convention

WOMEN WILL GO TUESDAY

A number of Rush county farmers including Fred Bell, the president, and Charles Spencer, vice-president of the Rush County Farmers Association, went to Indianapolis today for the opening of the national convention of the American Farm Bureau Federation, which will continue until Wednesday evening. Harry McMillin, an officer of the Union township association and Arthur Looney were also among the local farmers attending today.

Donald Ball, county agent, will probably be present for Tuesday's sessions, and Howard Ewbank, secretary of the county association, may not be able to attend before the closing day. Other farmers are expected to attend the meeting Tuesday and Wednesday.

Rush county women interested in farm bureau work are expected to be present at the auxiliary meeting of the national convention which will be held at the Claypool hotel Tuesday afternoon. A number of women in this county have received very urged, personal requests from Mrs. Lewis Taylor and Mrs. E. E. Reynolds to attend and hear the discussions on home economics, rural extension work and educational problems. Other states will be well represented at the meeting, it is stated.

2 CASES REQUIRE JURY THIS WEEK

Case Tomorrow of Innis vs Colter
Will Begin And Thursday of
Morris vs Wewee

SPECIAL VENIRE THURSDAY

Court Orders Ten Names Drawn
For That Case—Mrs. McGinn
Wants Divorce

The jury has been called into service for tomorrow in the circuit court when the case of Innis vs Colter will be tried, and on Thursday the jury will be used again in the case of Morris vs Wewee, with a special venire of ten names drawn for that day.

The case tomorrow was filed several months ago by Alonzo Innis and his son Hubert Innis of near Milroy against Samuel H. Colter and Edgar A. Archey, also of Milroy. The plaintiffs ask $2,000 judgment for alleged damages and the case involves a hog sale in which the plaintiffs allege that they purchased hogs that were diseased with cholera.

The plaintiffs assert that they purchased the hogs advertised and guaranteed to be double immunized from hog cholera, when the two defendants held a sale at Hope, Ind. The complaint asserts further that the hogs developed cholera and that they were damaged financially for treating them and that they lost a large number by death, as well as infecting the land upon which the hogs were brought. On these three counts, the plaintiffs ask $2,000 judgment.

This is the second case in which the defendants have figured here within the last year, over the same hog sale.

The case which will be heard Thursday was filed by John B. Morris, a local hardware merchant against Leonard Wewee on an account involving the purchase of a motor tractor. The case has been pending for several months and promises to be lively contested. This morning the defendant petitioned the court that a special venire should be drawn, and consequently Judge Sparks ordered 10 additional jurymen drawn for Thursday.

In the divorce case filed last week by Emmett McGinn against Dora McGinn, both of Milroy, this morning Mrs. McGinn filed a cross complaint against the plaintiff, in which she charges her husband with cruel and inhuman treatment. She alleges that on one occasion he took two razors and drew them across his throat, telling her that he was going to commit suicide unless she left him. She asserted in the complaint that he did this to scare her.

She also denied that the accusations made by the plaintiff in his complaint were true, and that certain portions of them had been admitted by the plaintiff after the filing of the divorce action, as being false statements. She states that she is the mother of four children and has made a living for them by taking in washings and asks the court for a divorce on her cross complaint and $1,000 alimony.

NO EXTENSION OF TIME IS ALLOWED

Fourth Installment of Income and Excess Profits Taxes Falls Due
on December 15

STATUTE CHANGED IN 1918

Ten Days of Grace Not Permitted
Such as Was Provided in The Law of Previous Year

It appears that some taxpayers believe that they have ten days grace on the fourth installment of the income and excess profits taxes due December 15. Such a provision was contained in the 1917 Revenue Act, but was removed by the Revenue Act of 1918. No extension can be granted under the law.

In order that this impression may be corrected, it is desired that the widest publicity be given to the following statement which has been sent out by William N. Williams, of the internal revenue bureau:

"December 15th is the last day for the payment of the fourth installment of the income and excess profits taxes due this year. To avoid penalty, the tax must be in the offices of Collectors of Internal Revenue or branch offices by midnight of that date.

"Inquiries reaching the Commissioner of Internal Revenue indicate a belief that taxpayers have ten days grace on this installment. Such a provision was contained in the 1917 Revenue Act, but was removed by the Revenue Act of 1918.

"Payment of the fourth installment may be made in cash or by money order or check. The Bureau of Internal Revenue urges that whenever possible payment be made by check or money order. This method helps the taxpayer by saving him a trip to the Collector's office and avoids congestion at the cashier's window. Check or money order should be made payable to 'Collector of Internal Revenue.'

"Bills will be sent to taxpayers, but failure to receive a bill does not relieve the taxpayer of his obligation to pay on time."

TEACHERS FAVOR AN INCREASED SCHOOL TAX

Sixth District Educational Association Would Equalize School Privileges of State

RESOLUTIONS ARE ADOPTED

The Sixth District Educational association before adjourning at the Graham high school building Saturday afternoon, adopted a set of resolutions which was prepared by a committee.

Among the more important subjects dealt with in the resolutions was the approval of the effort being made in the state to increase the state school tax enough to equalize the school privileges for all the children of Indiana. It was pointed out that in some of the poorer counties, the total school term each year amounts to only 95 days.

Another paragraph of the resolutions declared for a law which would increase the pay of county school attendance officers. It was stated that the present wage is not sufficient for the amount of time and attention the office requires.

A. M. Taylor, local high school principal, was chairman of the committee.

ASK CONGRESS FOR OVER FOUR BILLION

Federal Departments Submit Reports Today on Estimated Expenses For Fiscal Year

THE LARGEST ON RECORD

Republican Leaders Have Already
Served Notice That Requests
Will be Pruned

(By United Press)

Washington, Dec. 6.—Appropriations of $4,068,449,857.36 for the regular expenses of the government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1922, were asked of congress today by Secretary of Treasury Houston in submitting the annual estimates of the executive departments.

The amount requested exceeds the appropriation for the current fiscal year by $855,407,372.68, although it is approximately $400,000,000 less than the annual estimates submitted by the secretary in 1919.

Congress reduced the appropriations for the current fiscal year by $1,600,000,000 and republican leaders have also served notice that the request submitted today will be similarly treated.

Compared to the annual appropriations of pre-war years, Houston's estimates were nearly four times as great. But despite the fact that the expenses may be less, the estimates do not include the appropriation necessary for the payment of the six month guaranteed by the government to the railroads after they were returned to private ownership, and the increased naval building program that will be recommended by Secretary of Navy Daniels or any allowances of compensations which some government employees are demanding.

The greatest appropriation will be those caused by the war which will stand out above those reported by 75 percent of the total estimates. The first is for $1,188,404,864.87 for interest on and seeking funds to pay off the national war debt of more than twenty-four billion dollars. The estimate was $922,650,000. The total estimates for these two accounts were $400,000,000 less than the appropriation during the fiscal year.

The war department's request for the next year will total approximately $935,000,000 or almost to the total expenses of the government ten years ago.

The naval department estimates totaled more than $695,000,000 during the next year, or approximately $255,000,000 more than was granted by congress during the current year.

BAD BACK TODAY?

Backache is usually kidney-ache and makes you dull, nervous and tired. Use Doan's Kidney Pills for weak kidneys—the remedy recommended by your friends and neighbors. Ask your neighbor.

Mrs. Joseph Doll, 521 W. 3rd St., Rushville says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for two or more years when I was troubled with kidney complaint. I have found them to be a very reliable remedy. At times my back was very weak and lame and I would have to remain in bed. My back would ache intensely through the small part. My kidneys were very irregular in action, too. Every time I have been this way I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and never have they failed to relieve me."

Mrs. Doll gave the above statement August 26, 1915 and on November 1, 1920, she added: "I still have the same high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills that I had several years ago. I use them occasionally as a kidney tonic and get satisfactory results."

LITTLE SPIRITS NITRE SOLD HERE

Local Druggists Make it Difficult to Buy by Scrutinizing Every Demand for Preparation

REGULATIONS ARE EXPECTED

Accurate Record of Sales of Jamaica Ginger Must be Kept After Feb. 18, Order States

Sweet spirits of nitre, used by some persons as a substitute for whiskey, cannot be purchased in large quantities in this city, according to a local druggist, who was questioned about the demand for the preparation. Spirits of nitre, it may be explained for the benefit of the uninitiated, is made of alcohol with a small percent of nitrous ether. Those whose are feeling the effect of the prohibition enforcement law and are willing to go to almost any extremity in their effort to find a substitute, have purchased spirits of nitre, and after evaporating the ether, they have pure alcohol.

The process of removing the ether from the alcohol is quite simple. The container holding the solution is placed over a fire and in a few minutes the ether is evaporated, leaving only the alcohol. It is said that while the process is simple, it is at the same time dangerous for the alcohol ignites quickly and if the flames reach it difficulty is sometimes encountered in extinguishing the fire before the preparation disappears.

It is not so hard to detect a sale of spirits of nitre that is intended to be used as a substitute for whiskey, a local druggist stated when asked about the demand here. He said that it is sold in small quantities when it is intended for medicinal purposes, but that the man who wants it as a substitute will ask for a larger quantity.

The federal prohibition enforcement law does not provide that druggists shall keep a record of the sales of spirits of nitre, but the inspectors frequently ask about the quantity of the sales. If they are large in proportion to the drug business (that is done by the store, the inquiry sometimes goes further. It is expected that within a short time spirits of nitre will be placed in the same class with other medicines which are used as booze substitutes.

Jamaica ginger, which contains eighty-six percent alcohol, will be placed under stricter regulations beginning February 18, under a ruling recently issued by the prohibition enforcement commissioner. The druggists handling Jamaica ginger will be required to first get a federal liquor license and will have to keep an accurate record of all sales. Some time ago it was discovered that Jamaica ginger was being used as a substitute and that in large cities some druggists were buying it by the barrel.

Geneva, Switzerland, Dec. 6—Honorio Pueyrredon notified President Hymans of the league of nations assembly that the Argentine delegation had withdrawn.

Pueyrredon who is the foreign minister of Argentina and head of the delegation, declared. Argentine would resume its place if the assembly would withdraw its action of last Thursday postponing the consideration of all amendments until 1921. Pueyrredon alone voted against the proposal to postpone all amendments but was overruled by President Hymans. It was reported before Argentine's action was announced, that the whole question would be reopened today anyway.

An Ancient Christmas Dish.
An indispensable Christmas dish of ancient times was "frumenty" or "frumante." Here is the recipe for making the dish according to a faithful old chronicler: "Take clean wheat and bray it in a mortar until the hulls be all gone off, and seethe it until it burst, and take it up and let it cool; and take clean, fresh broth and sweet milk of almonds or sweet milk of kine and temper it all; and take the yolks of eggs. Boll it a little and set it down and mess it forth with fat venison or fresh mutton." Frumenty was often served alone without venison or mutton. When served by itself it was well sweetened.

CHRISTMAS WEEK IN ENGLAND

Time When Scattered Families Are United and Tender Memories Are Revived.

MANY and great are the changes which have occurred in England since Dickens wrote "A Christmas Carol," but they have not affected the national love for the festival and the determination to preserve, unimpaired the traditional warmth and heartiness of its celebration. Christmas week is still the great week of the year for the English people. It is the one week when scattered families are reunited, when tender memories and old associations are revived, when friend greets friend with a cheery expansiveness in striking contrast with the characteristic reserve of the English nature, so, undemonstrative to those who do not know it well, apparently so distant and unsympathetic.

From Wednesday all business will be suspended, not to be resumed till Monday morning. The whole nation will give itself up to good cheer and good fellowship, and for a brief season, all strife and controversy are hushed, and peace, charity and concord reign supreme.

Pale Children Need Iron

Iron in Syrup form is more readily digested and assimilated than Iron Pills or Iron Tablets, and naturally you get quicker results. The Iron in GROVE'S IRON TONIC SYRUP is digested as soon as it is swallowed and, therefore, is promptly assimilated. You can soon feel its Strengthening, Invigorating Effect.

The Syrup is flavored and children love to take it. Contains no Nux-vomica or other poisonous drugs, therefore, it can be given to The Babe, The Child, The Mother or The Grand-mother with perfect safety. 75c.

WALKING AND TALKING DOLLS

Lifelike Forms Gracefully Step
Across the Floor Saying "Mamma" or "Papa."

DOLLS that walk and talk and wink and roll their eyes are Parisian Christmas novelties in toyland. These dolls seem almost human, as they walk in sprightly style across the floor saying "mamma" or "papa" just as real children would.

Walking dolls being a new invention, seem wonderful and bring screams of delight from little girls and boys, too, who watch with intense interest every step of the lifelike dolls as they are exhibited in the shops.

The machinery that moves the doll's legs is set in motion by a key that is inserted in the works at the waist line.

The voice is made active by works that are wound with a key.

The eyes move as the body sways from side to side, just as the real children's eyes roll and blink, etc.

MRS. MACSWINEY IS IN NEW YORK NOW

LARGE CROWD GREET'S HER

New York, Dec. 6.—A great impressive gathering of Sinn Fein sympathizers met Mrs. Mariel MacSwiney, widow of the late lord mayor of Cork, who landed Saturday from the White Star liner Celtic and went in an automobile to the St. Regis hotel.

Mrs. MacSwiney was accompanied by Mary MacSwiney, her sister-in-law. She came to this country to testify before the commission formed by the New York Nation, a weekly magazine, to investigate the Irish situation.

In anticipation of trouble, several hundred police were on hand to cope with the situation. They held the crowds back to the sidewalk as the procession drove to the hotel. A big delegation was on hand. E. DeValera was represented by his secretary. Representatives of all the longshoremen's union acted as the honorary guard for the procession when Mrs. MacSwiney went from the ship to the automobile.

The crowd was dense and frequently broke through the police guard. Several times the policemen were knocked from their motorcycles by the throng.

WHEN A WOMAN IS NERVOUS—WORRIED

The lives of most women are full of worry. Men's troubles are bad enough, but women's are worse. Worry makes women sick. It pulls them down, and in their weakened condition they are subject to pains, aches, weakness, backaches, headaches and dizzy spells.

Most women neglect their health, and for this they pay the penalty. Any woman will find that neglect does not pay. A little more attention to health would brighten up her life. If she asks her neighbors she finds that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription benefits a woman's whole system. It not only acts upon the troubles and weaknesses peculiar to women, but is an all-round tonic that braces the entire body, overcoming nervousness, sleeplessness, headaches, dizziness and a run-down condition.

MOUNT VERNON, ILL.—"I am glad to say that Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription proved just as good as it is advertised to be. I was weak and lacked strength and ambition. I had worked hard and was poorly. I used the 'Favorite Prescription' and it gave me new strength, and seemed to put new life in me. I was pleased that it did so much for me, and I am very glad to recommend it."—MRS. WILL NEWBY, No. 1213 West Broadway.

Standard for the Christmas Tree

By DOROTHY PERKINS

(Copyright by A. Neely Hall.)

Don't let the preparation of a standard for the Christmas tree go until the last minute.

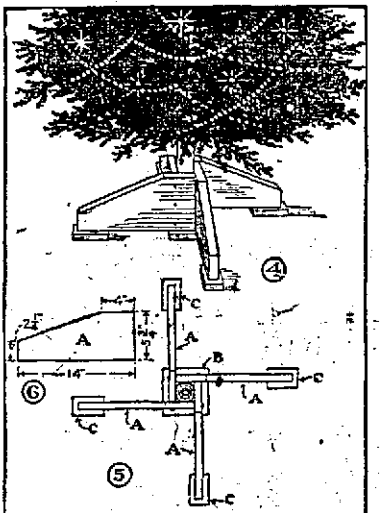

In the illustrations are shown three good schemes for standards.

The cross standard in Fig. 1 requires two pieces of 2 by 4, 18 or 20

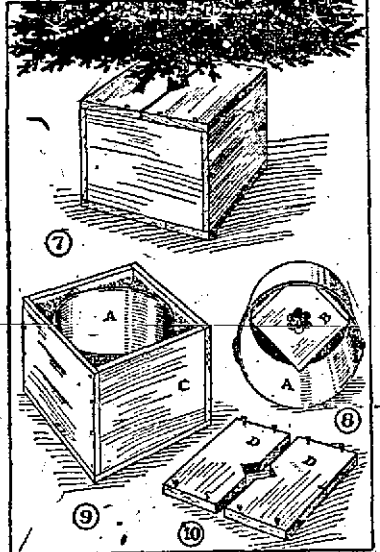

inches long (A and B, Fig. 2). To cross these pieces with tops even as shown, it is necessary to halve them, that is, cut from the center of each a piece equal to the width of, and one-half the thickness of, the other piece, as shown in Fig. 3. Then they will fit into one another. Saw along the sides of the notches, then split out the wood between the saw cuts with a chisel. The hole for the tree should be at least 2 inches in diameter. If you haven't an expansion-bit that can be set to cut a hole of this diameter, bore a ring of small holes, and trim up to the 2-inch diameter with a chisel. To the under side of A and B, at the ends, nail the shoe-blocks C. It is not necessary to nail A to B, if you make them fit snugly.

One advantage the standard in Fig. 4 has over that in Fig. 1 is that it is not necessary to bore a hole for the tree trunk. Also, it is more pleasing in appearance. The plan view (Fig. 5) shows how the four arms A are fastened so as to enclose a pocket for the tree trunk. You will notice that each piece is fastened with nails driven through its face into the end of the adjoining member. A pattern for arms A is shown in Fig. 6. Boards 1/2 inch or 3/4 inch thick should be used. The center shoe B (Fig. 5), and the shoes C, should be cut of the right size to make projections of about 1/2 inch.

A Christmas tree will not dry out and drop its needles as quickly if stood in water, and Fig. 7 shows a scheme which I have found successful. For a water receptacle, get a wooden or iron scrub-pail (A, Fig. 8). Cut a square block to fit in the pail bottom (B), and through the center of this cut a round hole to receive the end of the tree trunk. Make a box of just the right size for the pail to fit in (C, Fig. 9). Perhaps you can find a box of the right size or one which will require but little alteration. Make a cover for the box out of two pieces of board of equal width, as shown at D (Fig. 10), and notch the center of the inner edge of each, so that the pieces will fit around the tree trunk. Provide screws or hooks-and-eyes for fastening the cover boards to the box top. After setting the pail into the box, fill the square corners with sand to make the standard more solid.

There will be no need of painting the standards in Figs. 1 and 7, if you dress them with crepe paper.

Christmas Trees by Million

NURSERYMEN grow large quantities of Norway spruce for Christmas trees—rather more in the middle West, where conifers are not common in the woods, than on the eastern and western coasts, where they fringe every hillside. But the tree most commonly used is a short-needle pine found in the woods of Northern Michigan and Wisconsin. Early in September the Indians about the lumber camps of this region are set to work cutting these trees for the market, and by early November a little fleet of vessels makes its way down Lake Michigan, a Christmas tree hauled to the foremast of each one, that by this sign all may know that in their holds is a cargo which might not tempt a Captain Kidd, but is far more precious than many a one for which good ships have been scuttled.

Our Commercialized Christmas.

Christmas is the decoration day of a commercial age. Then, as on no other day, we face with compassion those who have fallen in our battles for wealth. For a moment we think of the thousands of children who have no share in that easy life we give our children, and must find the season's joy in the charity dinner. Along with the barter to which we have debased our giving within our circle of acquaintances, we play at extending the spirit of the day to those who are the pawns of our industrial game. The Salvation army lads, standing cold and numb on the street corner, collecting funds for Christmas baskets for the poor, reminds us of the wreckage left in the wake of our prosperity. We give a trifle to help the poor temper the bitterness of the year with a couple of hours' good eating.

 the "solemn referendum" on the league of nations covenant at last month's election, would indicate his intentions with regard to the treaty. It will make slight difference what President Wilson suggests, however, as Republican plans for handling the treaty are already mapped out. The extra session next March or April is to handle that unless the unexpected should happen, and Wilson should send the treaty back now, with an acceptance of senate reservations.

Here is some of the work which this session will be called on to dispose of:

- Fourteen appropriation bills.
- Reapportionment of representation in the House of Representatives, based on the 1920 census.
- A national budget bill.
- A bill to amend the Volstead prohibition enforcement law to make prohibition less stringent.
- A bill to make the Volstead more stringent, and to give the prohibition commissioner a bigger force, more money and wider powers.
- A demand for a sweeping investigation of prohibition enforcement.
- Some measure of tax revision, although the main program of tax and tariff revision is to be undertaken at the next session, according to present plans of Republican leaders.
- A soldier bonus bill.
- Measures to lower the cost of living.
- Proposed amendments of the railroad law.
- A treaty with Japan covering land ownership by Japanese in California and other states.
- A treaty with Colombia, settling

PUSSIE'S REVENGE

LITTLE Pussie White was feeling very unhappy one morning as she sat in the barn door in the sun licking her paws.

Pussie White had only lived at the farm for a short time, and she was much younger than the other pussies, Tabble and Blackie.

The reason Pussie White was so unhappy this morning was because the two older pussies had made fun of her for not catching as many mice as they did the night before.

"Of course, she may in time be able to catch a few more than she does now," said Blackie to Tabble, "but I am afraid this new puss will never prove to be a good mouser like you or me."

Tabble had tossed her head and replied that there were few pussies who could hunt mice as they did. "They may hunt for mice, my dear Blackie," she had said, "but they do not catch smart as they thought themselves to be. Pussie White had a friend that lived down the road, so she took herself off to tell Peter Dog her troubles.

Peter was a very wise little fellow and very fond of Pussie, for they had played together when Pussie was a kitten, and she had never scratched him as the other kittens had done.

"I think I can help you, Pussie," said Peter. "I am not at all fond of mice, but I am sure I can catch them and tonight if you can manage to keep Blackie and Tabble away from the barn I am sure we can catch mice enough to surprise those two spiteful creatures."

That night when the three pussies were eating their supper in the farmhouse kitchen Pussie White slipped away before the others had finished.

Down the cellar stairs she ran and climbed out of the window where there was an opening for the pussies to go in and out.

When Pussie White went out she managed somehow to knock the board that was fastened on the outside and down it slipped right over the opening.

Some time later when Blackie and Tabble wanted to go to the barn for the night, as they always did, they had to stay in the cellar all night.

The next morning Pussie White did not care for her breakfast and smiled to herself as she heard the farmer's wife say to the other pussies, "I guess Pussie White caught all the mice last night and you two did not catch any, from the way you eat."

But her revenge was complete when later Blackie and Tabble ran into the barn and could not find a mouse, for those that Peter and Pussie White did not catch the night before were frightened and ran away from the barn to live.

Tabble and Blackie did not make fun of Pussie White again, but they never knew how Pussie managed to clear the barn in a single night.

And this was the reason Pussie White was so unhappy and as she washed her face she was thinking how she could catch more mice and show Tabble and Blackie that she was just as

PEGGY coughed for an hour after bedtime until Mother thought of Kemp's Balsam. A half teaspoonful quickly relieved the irritation, after which she soon went to sleep.

THE GIRL ON THE JOB

How to Succeed—How to Get Ahead—How to Make Good

By JESSIE ROBERTS

JOB AND YOUR HEALTH

IS A WOMAN as strong as a man?

Given the same stature and weight, can she do equally hard work and not suffer for it?

Among many other matters that the war proved or disproved, this seems also to be settled—and settled in the negative. She can't!

Woman can do the same work, given a like training. But she breaks down under it where the man remains uninjured.

In France and England women for five years did the work of men. They have not stood up under the strain as men do. In England, physicians' reports show that of two thousand five hundred women examined in one industry, 42 per cent were found to be suffering from severe physical exhaustion or actual ill health, brought on by overwork. Yet men stood up under the same work without difficulty.

We are none of us likely to go into munition factories or to undertake heavy labor. But there is more in this than the fact that a woman ought not to attempt such feats. A girl who is looking about for a job ought to think of it in regard to herself—in regard to her health. The nervous and high-strung girl should not take up telephoning, for instance; nor should she go into a large and noisy office. She won't stand the strain.

A girl I knew who made a success of a small tea and lunch room got ambitious and took the whole house. She rented rooms and served a dinner as well as breakfast and lunch. She gave good meals and good service, had a large force of assistants to manage, and in six months she broke down and had to go to a sanitarium.

What's the use?

Your health is priceless. And once shaken, it isn't easy to get into good shape again. Look at your health as part of your capital, and conserve it. Never let your job borrow from that capital. There are times when you cannot control the thing, and when you do you must do the best you can and hope to get through with it. But most of us are just careless. It doesn't pay.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaint with calomel. For 17 years he has used these tablets (a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil) in his private practice with great success.

They do all the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. No pains, no griping, no injury to the gums or danger from acid foods—yet they stimulate the liver and bowels. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lumpy" and "heavy." Note how they clear clouded brain and perk up the spirits.

STOMACH CHURNED LIKE A MACHINE

This man had severe case of heartburn, sick stomach, gas collected pressing against his heart, caused shortness of breath. Lips turned blue, says I feel like another person since I've taken Dreo.

"I don't believe any one ever had a worse case of heartburn and vomiting than mine I had to stop work and go to bed for I was all in and felt like I was going to die. The gas pressed against my heart and lungs, my lips turned blue and my breathing was so bad I was alarmed. The sour gas gave me cramps and my bowels were so constipated that I was completely exhausted after each movement. I was so dizzy that I could hardly keep from falling and my stomach churned and turned over like a washing machine," declared Mr. August Poulsen of 425 W. Maryland Ave., Evansville, Ind.

"Dreo has enabled me to get back on the job and I feel sure of the future for I know what to do now when I need help. My stomach is soothed, nerves quieted, bowels move at regular times without a bit of straining, have no more gas. I eat like a hungry man should and sleep sound all through the night."

Dreo being an herb juice medicine, combines pleasantly with the juices of the stomach, and the results are quick and lasting.

All druggists now sell Dreo and it is being especially introduced in Rushville by F. B. Johnson & Co.—(Adv.)

FEDERAL LIQUOR PROBE IS BEGUN

Grand Jury Convened in Indianapolis Today to Investigate Alleged Whisky Ring

OTHER MATTERS COMING UP

Violations of Election and Interstate Commerce Laws to Come Under Scrutiny

(By United Press)

Indianapolis Ind, Dec. 6.—The federal grand jury met here today and probably its most important sitting for years.

It will investigate alleged violations of the prohibition laws, the election laws, the interstate commerce laws, and other matters more or less of routine nature.

One of the important angles of its investigation will be directed toward a gigantic whisky ring which is alleged to exist in northern and eastern Indiana. Many witnesses have been subpoenaed.

Next in importance probably will be the sifting of election fraud charges growing out of the primary elections, in which the cities of Gary, Evansville, Muncie, Delphi,

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.

Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

Jeffersonville and Indianapolis are involved. There are also several individual cases said to have been uncovered by agents of the department of justice.

There seems to be some question as to whether the grand jury will take up the charges made by State Senator Joseph Cravens, of Madison on the floor of the senate that a combination exists between Governor James P. Goodrich and officials of the Big Four railroad whereby coal mines in which Cravens said the governor was financially interested obtained a preference on coal cars. Shortly after Cravens voiced his charges, Goodrich challenged him to turn over whatever evidence he had to federal authorities. Cravens went to District Attorney Frederick Van Nuys and asked him to place the matter before the grand jury and Van Nuys said he would.

So far as the liquor probe is concerned, federal agents have been investigating conditions in Richmond, Muncie, Anderson, Indianapolis, Goshen, Elkhart, South Bend, Michigan City and other cities in the northeastern part of the state. They charge that a combination of men engaged in illicit liquor traffic maintained headquarters in Richmond for all underground whisky business in the middle west with a chain operating between Chicago, Pittsburgh, Louisville and other important cities and the Indiana places as "way stations."

The election fraud charges in Indianapolis and in some of the other cities are said to have been the outgrowth of failure by registration officials to list some names on the official lists.

WISCONSIN BEST TEAM BUT OHIO STATE WON

This is View of E. C. Patterson in Selecting all Western Conference.
Eleven

LEADERS DIVIDE HONORS

(By United Press.)

New York, Dec. 6—Four players from Wisconsin, four from Illinois two from Ohio State and one from Iowa have won places on the "All-Western Conference" football team picked by E. C. Patterson in Collier's Weekly of December 11.

Commenting on football in the Western Conference, Patterson says that 400,000 spectators paid between $500,000 and $600,000 to see the conference games. He attributes the success of the season to the interest shown by the fans and makes an appeal on behalf of them to have the players numbered in the future.

"Man for man," he says, "Wisconsin was unquestionably represented by the best team in the conference, but, notwithstanding this, she lost an early game to Ohio State by sheer stupidity on her side and daring brilliancy on the part of Wilce's scrappy eleven.

"Ohio State, the champion, was represented by a team without any outstanding stars, but she had a team where all her men played consistent football from whistle to whistle. Their line work offensively was only fair and defensively it was good, but they proved themselves to be past masters in the forward passing game, with Workman shooting an Stinchcomb receiving. Most, if not all their victories, were the result of this passing. Long passes seemed to predominate. Either one of two things: they knew the passing end better than any team in the conference, or they dared to take more chances.

Physicians Gather at Washington to Plan Campaign Against The "Great Red Plague"

GEN. PERSHING TO ATTEND

Washington, Dec. 6—Physicians and noted men from all parts of the United States will meet here today for a week's conference to plan a nation-wide campaign against the "Great Red Plague," a phrase invented by the United States Public Health Service to stand for two social diseases.

The conference was called by Dr. Hugh Cummings, surgeon general of the United States.

Practically certain cures now have been discovered and proved by medical science for the two most common social diseases, according to officials of the health service. To be effective in combating the diseases in the United States, however, the cures must be understood by the public, officials point out. How to get the facts across convincingly will be one of the problems to be discussed by the conference.

General Pershing is one of many noted men who have accepted invitations to attend. Pershing is expected to describe the methods used by the military authorities to protect the A. E. F. against disease in France and later in Germany.

ATTACKS COAL COMMISSION

National Association Official Says
More Production is Needed

Terre Haute, Ind., Dec. 6.—Attacking the Indiana state coal law as ineffective, Alfred Ogle, vice-president of the National coal association, today issued a statement declaring that the only way to meet the fuel shortage is increased production.

He declared that the coal industries were entirely capable of taking care of the shortage. With the bituminous coal production now more than twelve million tons a week, the immediate wants of the country will be supplied and some have obtained their winter coal supply.

FARMERS SEEK PROTECTION

Will go Before Congress to Ask Relief From Lower Prices

Washington, Dec. 6—More than 500,000 farmers banded together, the national board of farm organizations is making preparations for a drive in congress to get legislation to protect the consumers and farmers from being victimized by speculators, President Claud Barrett of the board declared today.

Seven million farmers now are forced to sell the products at the lowest price in history in proportion to the retail price, said Barrett. But hundreds of millions of consumers are paying the highest prices in the history for the same products. Billions of dollars profits go into the pockets of the speculators.

Prominent Western Man Praises Tanlac

G. W. Logan, Peabody, Kansas

"Tanlac has completely restored my health and I feel finer than in years," was the straightforward statement made recently by Mr. George W. Logan, of Peabody, Kansas, one of the most prominent stock-dealers in the Middle West.

"It has not made a new man of me but I have actually gained thirty-five lbs. in weight and feel as well as I ever did in my life. I am telling all of my friends about Tanlac but they can see for themselves what it has done in my case.

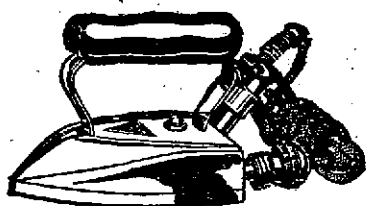

"When I began taking Tanlac I was in an awfully run-down condition. I was away off in weight, felt weak and nervous all of the time and couldn't take any interest in my work or anything else. My main trouble was indigestion. Nothing seemed to agree with me. At times I would have dizzy spells and at other times my back would ache so bad that I could hardly get up and down in my chair. This is just the condition I was in when I started to take this medicine. It took just six bottles to make a well man of me. I now have a fine appetite, everything tastes good and my digestion is perfect.

"My wife was also troubled with indigestion at times and it relieved her the same way. You may publish my statement wherever you like and if anyone doubts it, just tell them to see me."

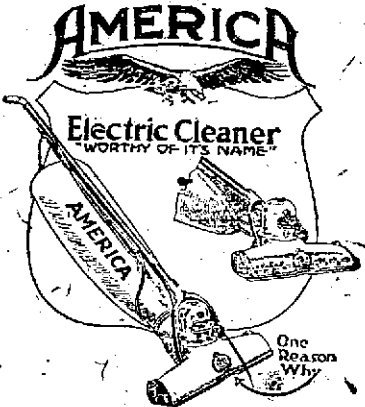

Tanlac is sold in Rushville by F. B. Johnson Co., in Milroy by Dallas Copper, in Manila by Geo. J. Inlow, in Arlington by Mrs. L. T. Davis, in Carthage by Otto & McCarty, and in New Salem by Mrs. Jos. Hankins.—R. R. 2.—(Adv.)

CHARGES GAMBLING IN THE BOARD OF TRADE

Sen. Capper Declares That Trading is "to Milk the People of Millions of Dollars"

WANTS PROTECTION BILL

Washington, Dec. 6—Asserting that there is gambling in the grain market in the boards of trade throughout the country, Senator Capper, of Kansas declared that it is a grain gambling conspiracy to milk the people and the farmers out of millions of dollars.

With the statement made public today, Senator Capper also expected to introduce in the senate today a bill to protect the farmers by placing a tax on all deals in grain. This bill will stop all gambling in the farm products, Senator Capper declared. It will also eliminate the wheat pit, he declared.

"The Chicago Board of Trade is now conducting the world's greatest gambling institution," the senator charge. "During the month of October the Chicago Board of Trade sold more wheat than was raised in the United States. Farmers have lost more than a billion dollars through this gambling."

HAMON'S WIDOW SAYS HUSBAND WAS KIND

WERE MARRIED 22 YEARS

Ardmore, Okla., Dec. 6—Assailing Mrs. Clara Smith Hamon, alleged slayer of her husband, Jake Hamon, as "one who came along with beauty and paraded with Mr. Hamon," the widow of the late Jake Hamon, republican committeeman, made her first public statement today.

Her statement was made when

planning to go to Oklahoma City to buy mourning clothes.

"I have lived with Mr. Hamon between the four walls and no one could be kinder than him", she stated in defending her husband.

"He must have done something to provoke her wrath when she did the shooting", she declared. "I have lived with Mr. Hamon for 22 years and much longer than she. I have always been kind to him and never asked him to care for the children only once when Olive Bell was ill with the diphtheria.

"I can bare the hardships of it all, if you would not call her by the name of Mrs. Hamon instead of her own name. She says she is 22 years old when she really is 32 years old.

"The alleged diary said to be written by Mrs. Hamon is one published by an editor of a newspaper for she never had the ability to write one. A newspaper writer wished to gain a reputation and a large sum of money. The picture which has been published does not resemble Mrs. Smith".

Jack Knecht will take over the interests of his brothers and they are demanding their invested capital and for this reason he is forced to raise a large sum of money to satisfy their holdings in this firm. Notwithstanding the reckless price cutting and tremendous selling of the first week, there is still thousands of dollars worth of this immense stock piled high on the shelves that must be turned into money at some price in the next few days, and this great sacrifice of values grows more reckless as the time goes by. Our marvelous race against time is rounding the last curve and the end is near and
